In this COVID-19 era, as you juggle kids' distance learning schoolwork and family well-being, we are here to support you. Please join AARP Maryland and expert guests from John Hopkins and the Maryland Retired School Personnel Association for this special tele-town hall series.

Jennifer Goetz, MD is a child and adolescent psychiatrist and Assistant Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. She works with children, teens and adults with a wide variety of emotional and behavioral difficulties, with specific expertise in the treatment of individuals with eating disorders.

The Maryland Retired School Personnel Association. MRSPA has advocated for retired Maryland public school personnel for 75 years. Their mission is to protect the retirement benefits earned by their members, while providing opportunities to connect and make a difference in their communities. The almost 14,000 members continue to support our schools, students, and active employees in Maryland and many other community service projects.
